The Governor's Office of Homeland Security is offering a symposium on mass gatherings and large-scale events for law enforcement, public safety personnel, and those individuals directly involved in the hosting and management of these events.

An impressive group of international and nationwide subject matter experts including federal and state officials, who presented at our event in Philadelphia, will again be presenting at this symposium. This is a learning opportunity that you won't want to miss. Register early!

The attached Registration Form must be emailed to the Office of Homeland Security by Wednesday, March 23, 2017. An agenda will be emailed upon receipt of the registration form.
